

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

130. e.

10.

600107708T

MORE
"AWFUL DISCLOSURES," IN
A DIALOGUE BETWEEN
A SCHISMATIC ARMENIAN - ROMISH - PRIEST,
AND
AN ORTHODOX CATHOLIC; PROVING
A LETTER FROM THE PRIEST
TO BE WRITTEN BUT "WITH INK,"
AND NOT "IN THE SPIRIT OF THE LIVING GOD."

"Now THE SPIRIT speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some will separate themselves from the ROMAN FAITH, giving themselves up to SPIRITS OF ERROR, and to doctrines TAUGHT BY DEVILS. Speaking FALSE THINGS THROUGH HYPOCRISY, having also the conscience CAUTERISED. CONDEMNING THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE, THE ABSTINENCE FROM MEATS." &c. 1 Tim. iv. 1-3.

From the Arch-Bishop of Bordeaux's New Testament, "carefully revised and corrected," and "so translated that a Roman Catholic might find in it explicit statements of the peculiar dogmas of his Church." See Cramp's Text Book of Popery, pp. 57-60.

TEIGNMOUTH:
E. AND G. H. CROYDON, PUBLIC LIBRARY.

MDCCCLXIX.

130. 2. 10.

MORE "AWFUL DISCLOSURES," &c.

THREE PROPOSITIONS.

No. I.

"I will not have the Holy Church proved by human documents, [i. e., not by either Apocryphal Books, which "are not canonical;" nor by "the commandments of men, which turn from the TRUTH:"] but by the Divine Oracles." St. Aug. Finch's Sketch. p. 152.¹

No. II.

"He, who, in any the least degree, either changes or varies the Scriptures, is guilty of sacrilege, and is worthy of death." "For, can two [i. e., the Church, with the Word of God;] walk together, except they be agreed?" St. F. de Sales, Contr. 129; Amos iii. 3.

No. III.

Roman Catholics are pledged neither "to take nor to interpret the Holy Scriptures otherwise than according to the UNANIMOUS consent of the Fathers."

¹ Being told by Bishop Jewel that a little poison requires a great deal of treacle, be pleased to turn to the passages herein quoted. J. (Jewel, First Portion, Parker Society,) p. 80. A more curious document does not exist, than one that was privately sent in 1553, to Pope Julius III., drawn up by several Bishops, most strongly recommending him by no means whatever to allow the reading of the Bible in the vulgar tongue; for if once the people were aware, not only of the differences that exist between their faith, and the Word of God; but also the manner in which it is often directly opposed to them; it would be impossible to make their clamour cease. Réponse, &c. au Mendement, de l'Archevêque de Toulouse, p. 183. An excellent work. In 1686, the Bordeaux New Testament was printed. See Cramp's Text Book, p. 57. Bishop Kidder's "Reflections" on the Bordeaux New Test. are out of print, which is greatly to be lamented. See the Title page. In 1824 Leo the XII., and the Emperor of the Turks, wrote against the distribution of the Bible, just in proportion as they had reason to fear it. See Réponse above, p. 180. Whereas one Waterworth, a priest, declares, "That in Rome itself ... there is no restriction or restraint whatever. We encourage and exhort the people to read the Scriptures quile as much as Mr. Venn can do." Hereford Dis. p. 47. Pilgrim. to Rome. And the Earl of Arundel and Surrey is reported to have said, "I am a Catholic in communion with Rome—by conviction, by examination,—confirmed by the study of those Scriptures which we [Papists] are said not to be permitted to read," &c. A letter from Pisa, Dub., Wm. Curry, jun. These are most "unreverently misused" contradictions; for, again we read, "Receive not Bibles, books, &c. offered to you by a betraying hand. The snake is hidden in the grass, and you, in the midst of the most devout and mellifluous expressions, may find there [in the Bible, &c.] concealed, THE MOST VENEMOUS VIPER OF HERESY." R. Melia. Lond. Sardinian Chapel, Mar. 18, 1845.

A DIALOGUE, &c.

PART I.

Orthodox Catholic. Considering, Reverend Sir, that just as "Tertius" wrote, by desire of St. Paul, to the Romans ; so now you write to me but in subservience to your "Task-Master," Rome ; only that as he wrote "by the Spirit," so you "but with Ink." He, as a "witness" in favour of Jesus Christ ; and you, as serving Anti-Christ. In communing and reasoning together, while analyzing this, your Roman Epistle ; let us continue to speak with our usual freedom, one to the other. Allow me, therefore, Rev. Sir, to ask ; "As it does not even become you to have names in common with heretics," how, conscientiously, you can address me, as your "dear brother in Jesus Christ ?" Because, if so, to what end or purpose could it be—that the several "Door-keepers of their god," offered up such holocausts as were sacrificed to Rome-Moloch, in 1572, 1685, &c. &c. ?¹ If a "heretic" be your dear brother in Jesus Christ"—why was F. Cellario, in being first seized—"caused to be killed," in being burnt alive ?² We know why Aonio Paleario suffered. For he being asked three several times, "On what it was he altogether grounded his hopes ;"³ resolutely replied—That it was but on Jesus

¹ "Butchers that made a ROMAN HOLIDAY."—Missionario Apostolico, &c., &c.

² M'Crie's Italy, pp. 401, 156. John xv. 20.

³ Pope Gregory xvi. says the same of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Christ."¹ Now although, Rev. Sir, in being thus "taught by Devils," a doctrine so at variance with "The Roman² Faith," was it with "well doing, you put to silence the ignorance of this foolish man?" For consider, Rev. Sir, that, "except their bonds, we would that we were altogether such as were these," our "dear brothers in Christ Jesus." Being told, that it is "The blood-thirsty that hate the upright." That "It is written," those "that are born of the flesh persecute those born of the Spirit."³

*Armenian Romish "Priest of Christ and of Mary."*⁴ Pray have not popes an absolute and lawful power [curtailed a little, it is true, since November, 1848] over *all parts of the world, to seize as often as they please, and to inflict merited punishment on heretics?*⁵

O. C. When it can be done with safety, Ciaconia and Carl. Bellarmine recommend the destruction of heretics.⁶ And, so mysterious are the ways of God; that, "for a time, and times, and the dividing of time;" although allowing themselves to be called "the Lord's Christ;" these, "the good Shepherds,"⁷ there at once,⁸ were allowed to have power in blaspheming God "to shut up heaven!"⁹ God, nevertheless, "loathing them in his soul; as they, in their souls, abhorring Him," were "consumed in biting and devouring each the other!" Consequently, therefore, Rev. Sir, you are of opinion, are you; that (as "the Catholic Church especially taking care to hold that, which

¹ M'Crie, p. 156.

² See the Title page.

³ "The Bartholomew Breakfast." "Un glorioso fatto." "Set apart by the All-powerful Redeemer," &c. "About two hundred were murdered in the Archbishop's palace."—Smedley's France, pp. 30, 50, 39.

⁴ "Hearken to what Peter and Paul say."—Jewel, p. 25.

⁵ M'Crie's Italy, p. 401.

⁶ Edgar's Var., p. 235.

⁷ Mariolatry, p. 83, &c.

⁸ Triceps Bestia Edg. 55.

⁹ "Bipedum omnium magnissimus."—D'Aubigné, vol. iii. 510.

EVERYWHERE, and ALWAYS, and BY ALL, has been believed ; for this is truly and properly CATHOLIC,¹) it is now to be lamented, that AS in 1572, 1685, &c. his Holiness, the meek and humble follower of the lowly Jesus, is prevented from chanting "the Te Deum" for the slaughter of all the remaining heretics ?² But, Rev. Sir, although this, and much more in favour of their Holinesses may be urged—yet, still we would ask, whether your thus addressing a "heretic" as your "dear brother in Jesus Christ," is not to renounce all honesty ; to walk in craftiness ; and to handle the word of God deceitfully ?³

P. of Mary. That is just as you take it, "dear brother in Jesus Christ." But, observe, that whether we use the very words themselves, or not ; we ever inculcate, that it is the end that justifies the means ; as is seen especially in "The MORAL Theology of Saint Liguori." Nay, as is approved by this Saint, are we not bound to teach, that, "When there is just cause of necessity or utility, any one may in double speaking [even] in AN OATH, ALTHOUGH OF HIS OWN ACCORD, COMES FORWARD TO SWEAR."⁴

O. C. Alas ! my brother ! And is it with such armour as this—"For the whole armour of God ;"—that you expect to stay your foe ? But if so, no wonder that in upholding such "moral Theology," as is this, of "Saint Liguori, that you refuse to accept the works of Bishop Jewel :—and condemn "The Awful Disclosure" made of "Saint Liguori's moral Theology," offered to you, as "Ridi-

¹ Diff. of Rome, p. 6. Thus upheld by Rome.—Apoc. Sketches, p. 225.

² "Vgonottorvm Strages, 1572 ;" a medal struck by Gregory xiii. to commemorate the "Glorioso fatto" of St. Bartholomew.

³ "As the priests' lips should keep knowledge," is not "this to be called of Christ, while serving Anti-Christ ?"—J. p. 382.

⁴ "AWFUL DISCLOSURE OF SAINT LIGUORI'S MORAL THEOLOGY," by Blakeney, p. 74.

culous ;” saying that “ *Caricature*¹ is not adapted to persuade the reasoning mind :” and that “ Protestants are so unlogical,” &c. Adding, also, that Protestants are wrong if they suppose the Pope, &c. can establish any new article of Creed,” &c.²

What, Rev. Sir, when it is taught, that “ Whatsoever novelties the Pope institutes ; whether in the Scriptures or not : that whatever he ordains is true, divine et beatifant ? ”³

What, when “ your dear brother in Jesus Christ ” is forewarned that “ It is necessary to salvation ” (i. e. since the “ revealed ” Creed⁴ of P-i-o-u-s IV., in 1646 :) “ *to believe the Church of Rome to be the mother*⁵ and mistress of all Churches.” Forgetting, surely, that that “ Church ” which is now at Babylon—ROME, had its beginning at “ Jerusalem.”⁶ What, “ no new Creed,” Rev. Sir, while, nevertheless, it was decreed at Trent in 1546, that, “ The three Creeds already then in use, were all that was necessary to be believed ; and that they were the firm and only foundation against which the gates of hell shall never prevail ? ”⁷

No, No Rev. Sir, call the Vatican, if you will, “ Christ’s holy home.” Uphold, that “ the Pope can transubstantiate

¹ From the Priest’s Letters. “ Can any two priests look each other in the face without laughing ? ”

² Be pleased to keep in mind, that that “ lover of whatsoever things are true,” Dr. Wiseman, says, “ Keep EVER to the author’s meaning.” “ As goads, nail fast these words of this master of assemblies.” Essays on Rom. 382. “ Search the Scriptures.”

³ See Hungarian Confession Vindicated. Nisbet.

⁴ “ The Apostacy,” by O’Sullivan ; and the Old and the New Creed.

⁵ Notes of the Church, Refuted.” 103.

⁶ Were not Jerusalem, Cæsarea, Antioch, &c., before Rome ? except that she is the mother of all superstitions. J. 421. Acts xv. 22.

⁷ “ The Old and the New Creed.” Prot. Association. So good. Was this the meaning of the Council of Trent ?

sin into duty and duty into sin,"¹—and as you are permitted so to do, come forward, if you will, "of your own accord on oath so to swear:"—but, still, a transmutation there will be. So that "our enemies themselves being judges;" it must be allowed, that nothing that is either "ridiculous, or a caricature, or unlogical," will out—"caricature" such an assertion as is this of yours, viz: That you have no new Creeds! &c.

Why, has not a New-man—"departing out of the way, in causing many to stumble, in corrupting the covenant"—succeeded by his "Developments" to prove, That your Church is nought else but one continued tissue of novelties, under the head of DEVELOPMENTS?² And, again, who is it that so "caricatures" your Church, as you yourselves do, by your would-be "cunningly devised fables;" your constant renewal of "Decretal Epistles," in support of a pretended, infallible supremacy?³

For, is not the assumed supremacy of your Popes⁴ altogether smashed by Pope, Saint Gregory I., who wrote, "God keep it far from any Christian mind, that any man should take so much upon himself"—i. e. as to call himself "Universal Bishop?" Surely, Rev. Sir, this, at least, is "adapted to persuade a reasoning mind;" and not "unlogical," when a Sainted Pope declares, that "to call himself, or to desire to be called, Universal Priest,

¹ Edg: 131, 2nd edition; and Quesnet's Moral Reflections, that are condemned by Clement xi. as "blasphemous," &c., because it was said, that "the reading of the Holy Scriptures is for every body," &c. Text Book, 52. "Was this the Author's meaning?"

² Jer. viii. 17; Newman's Essay; "Pious Frauds:" "To save the words, but to overthrow the meaning." J. 447; and the Bishop of Ossory's Charge, 2nd, 1845, is a jewel. "THERE we really have the Author's meaning." A lamp with oil. No lying words that cannot profit.

³ Bishop of Gibraltar's Charge, 1844, p. 25, &c., and J. 172.

⁴ As is the "Trash for the Times?"

is to be the precursor of Antichrist : ” that it is “ a name of blasphemy, ” &c. &c. &c. ¹

Besides,—in Saint “ Peter’s being committed to the circumcision ”—what had that to do with Rome-Babylon ? when, or where, or in whom was the true circumcision ever found at Rome-Babylon ? ²

P. of Mary. “ We know that an attempt was made, many years ago [in A. D. 64 ? Eph. ii. 20], and lately renewed, to prove that the Rock upon which Christ promises that he will build the Church [of Rome ?] was not Peter, but Himself ; but still this interpretation can boast more of its ingenuity, than of its plausibility ; it seems rather calculated to betray the shifts to which OUR OPPONENTS feel themselves obliged to resort, &c. ³

O. C. What, then, Rev. Sir, although being taught by the Apocalypse ⁴ of Jesus Christ, ever to speak the truth, and “ not to bear witness against your neighbour ; ” yet do you dare by that sentence of a Wise-man, ⁵ as you consider him, not only thus to “ bear witness against your neighbour,” but also against the inspired Word of God ; in accusing PROTESTANTS, as you would have it thought that “ your opponents ” are ; not only of the iniquity of extinguishing the beacon-lights ; but also, of the infinitely greater crime of exhibiting FALSE lights ; that, as pirates,

¹ “ Heretics chop and pare the sayings of the Fathers.” J. 344, 345, 425. Should not “ this Author know his own mind ? ” Instead of holding fast that which is good, &c., how sad it is “ for a rule of faith ” to have “ a disgusting farrago of superstition, falsehood, and blasphemy.” Ess. on Rom. 18. J. 32, 339, 344. “ An unchristianlike and lewd name.”

² Apoc. xviii. 1 ; Jer. li ; Ezek. xxviii.

³ Essays on Rom. 159. “ Much treacle is wanted here, ” for these lectures of Dr. Wiseman. See p. 3, note 1.

⁴ See Apoc. Sketches, p. 4, “ By the Revelation,” &c.

⁵ Turton’s Obs. on Dr. W. Still we fear there is no latter rain. See Jer. iii. 3. What was Dr. W.’s meaning when he wrote the above ? “ As is the mother, so is the daughter ! ” is our meaning !

we ALSO may inveigle the mariner to his destruction? Surely then, for the moment, you must forget that your opponents disdain "The moral Theology of Saint Liguori's double speaking;" or the permission given to you, of "coming forward, if they will, of their own accord, to perjure themselves in false swearing!"¹

However, Rev. Sir, "as the thief evermore leaveth somewhat behind him that he may be known by,"² be pleased to read what these "your opponents" have so carefully hidden from the Wise-man; as, no doubt, also, from the New-man; that "the shifts to which these, your opponents, are obliged to resort, may be betrayed."

P. of Mary. To prove then that the Church [of Rome] is built upon Peter, and not as "our opponents" say, on Jesus Christ: we read, that³

"The Catholic Church is founded with a firm root upon THE ROCK CHRIST."⁴ Christ himself is THE ROCK."⁵ "The building of the Church, therefore, is upon this Rock of his confession. This Faith is the foundation of the Church."⁶ "Jesus said not, Thou art the Rock, but, thou art Peter. THE ROCK WAS CHRIST whom Peter confessed," &c.⁷

O. C. But, Rev. Sir, Having sworn that only with "the unanimous consent of these your opponents," it is, that either you, your Wisemen, or your New-men, "will interpret Holy Scripture."⁸ . . .

P. of Mary. You forget, that it is the end that justifies the means. "All this is just as you take it."⁹ But not ¹ "Being forbidden to prepare lying and corrupt words." See note 1, p. 17.

² "Double unto her double according to her works."

³ J. 190.

⁴ J. 340.

⁵ St. Jerome. Essay on Rom. 159.

⁶ St. Cyprian.

⁷ St. Hilary.

⁸ St. Aug.

⁹ Proposition No. III. p. 3.

¹⁰ A favourite expression of the Priests, and considered conclusive.

so with us, for with "Saint Liguori's Moral Theology," and his brother Jesuits to teach us; we hesitate not to say, that even, "If a man blaspheme without duly considering what he does, however much he may be in the habit of it, he commits no mortal sin."¹ Nor can you be "scandalized" at what we now bring forward, as though they were "hyperbolical expressions of writing"² unauthorized. For although condemned, it is true, as were the holy Fathers, the Jesuits, by H. H. P. Clem. XIV. still, "as vigorous and experienced rowers, to save the bark of Peter,"³ was it not found necessary to restore them? And why not? For are we not one in communion, one in "Roman Faith," and one in baptism with them; serving and ADORING THE ONE LORD [GOD THE POPE]?⁴

O. C. So then, where the gates of Hell fail; you trust with the help of these "vigorous rowers," &c. that the Vatican, "Christ's holy home," "will prevail?"⁵

P. of Mary. That is just as you take it.

O. C. Nay, Rev. Sir, that is just as you give it.

P. of Mary. I proceed to say, that moreover, supposing that abuses do exist; does not Dr. Wiseman satisfactorily prove—to himself, at least—that where abuses have been tolerated for a time: they are not only canonical but IRREVOCABLE. Nay, they have an authority which may be denied to the canons themselves?⁶

¹ Jesuit Fillinsius. Achill Herald, May 20, 1838.

² An expression in the Priest's letter.

³ Dalton's Jesuits.

⁴ "Quem creant ADORANT" is struck on the medals of Martin v., Eug. iv., and Adrian vi. See Extr. Baine's Serm. 22.

⁵ "Such as are molested with evil spirits." "Devil's apostles." "Looking for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us; we roar like bears, and mourn sore like doves." J. 115, 418.

⁶ Palmer's Epist. Vind. 70. "Nothing is small that deceives the people." J. 95, and Hos. iv. 6.

O. C. As no one can withstand such argument as that, let us go to our¹ next subject, “the Commandments” themselves, and first teach me “THE VERY WORDS IN WHICH THEY WERE WRITTEN BY GOD IN THESE [HIS] TABLES.”² And so reading, Rev. Sir, in an authorized Catechism ; however unwillingly to expose you, yet, “as ISSACHAR,” must we cause you “to couch down between two burdens ;” as for example ; you unblushing teach that your ten Commandments are given “IN THE VERY WORDS” in which they were “WRITTEN BY GOD IN THESE HIS TABLES.” Nevertheless—where, in this your table of Commandments, is God’s second Commandment found ? For we find that “the word that goeth forth out of God’s mouth, has returned unto him void ; not prospering in the thing whereunto He sent it.” Is this “neither to change or vary ?” &c.³ Is this “to write, not in ink, but in the Spirit of the living God ? ”⁴

When, that you may still live on, “after the manner of the Pagans,” “thinking it no robbery” to sanctify your own self-appointed “Feasts,” or Saints’-days ; you say, “God spake all these words” and said, “Remember to

¹ Priest. “Hast thou found me, O mine enemy ? O. C. answers : I have found thee, because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord,” &c.

² Catech. Pope Urb. viii. Hereford Dis. 100. Paris Catech. 1846, and Pisa Catech. 1844. “As we love God, we keep His Commandments.”

³ See Prop. No. II. p. 3. Exod. xx. 4—6 is entirely left out.

⁴ “I stake my soul upon the doctrine which I hold.” Her. Dis. 207. “Shall I pretend to say that God did not know his own meaning ? ” Venn’s Corres. 115. When God said, “Thou shalt not make,” &c., of course, he MEANS, Thou shalt make. When Jesus Christ said, “Drink ye all of this,” &c., of course, he MEANT, “Eat this, all of you,” &c. And when God said, “Thou shalt labour,” he MEANT, “REST,” &c. What are “the Devil’s Sophistries,” if these are not ? J. 78. What DEVIL-opments, if not these ? When Jesus said, “I am the true vine,” “I am the door,” &c., of course, he meant literally, do these “GREAT W.’s,” Waterworth and Wiseman, pretend to say ? or, that we are really to eat that flesh “which profiteth NOTHING ? ” See Notes 2, 3, 4, 5, p. 16.

sanctify ' the Feasts ;'" and then, forsooth, having first obliterated, in God's second Commandment, one of the lights ; and given a false light for God's fourth Commandment ; just as though it were meritorious to deal in blasphemy, and "double speaking ;" to prove that you have "neither changed or varied" the Commandments ; you own that you have both "varied and changed them"—in pretending that your uninspired, wrinkled, fallible Church, has the same authority so to act ; as had the inspired Apostles in that their "glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing" ; in honour of the resurrection of the Lord of Life, to hallow the first day of the week as the Christian Sabbath.²

What, that is "ridiculous, or caricature, or unlogical," can exceed this ? And would that it were simply "statuimus id est abrogamus."³

P. of Mary. These difficulties, dear friend, we can easily obviate : inasmuch, as that we only "admit the Sacred Scriptures according as holy mother Church has held, does hold, or interprets them."⁴

O. C. No, Rev. Sir, this seeming to be somewhat, obviates no difficulty whatever : on the contrary, you are only "drawing down greater sin upon yourselves as with a cart rope." For, "as a Master of Israel," you should know ; that "no prophecy, or teaching of the Scriptures, is of any private interpretation."⁵ And besides : supposing even that this arbitrary, or "perverted Gospel" of Roman faith, TAUGHT BY DEVILS ;⁶ supposing that this

¹ See Catech. Paris, Pisa, and Urb. viii. ; Note 2, p. 13.

² See Drs. Wiseman and Milner in Essays on Rom. "Unity."

³ J. 55.

⁴ Prop. No. II. Creed, Pius iv. "Calling those things which be not, as though they were."

⁵ Blessed Luther said, "Now I have the goose by the throat."

⁶ Bordeaux New Test. Title page.

YOUR Gospel, so blasphemous as it is, were indeed another Gospel, WHICH IT IS NOT: but supposing that you “did, or could fill up a gap, or stop a loophole which occurs in the¹ structure of the original creed,” or commandments of God; still you are feeding on ashes, you are holding fast a lie in your RIGHT HAND, in teaching² that God SPAKE ALL THESE WORDS, &c. For you must know that these your “human documents;” these, your “commandments of men, turn but from the truth;” and cannot be proved by “the Divine Oracles.”³ You can only “fly to a refuge of his,” saying, The end, i. e. Paganism, or Exeter-ism, or Popery, justifies your double-speaking,—and that SAINT Liguori approves of your so doing, although of your “own accord, you come forward to swear an oath”—in PERJURY!⁴

P. of Mary. But observe—although “neither man or angel” may change the “Gospel,” that that does not include the Pope. No! No! “Papa, non est HOMO.”⁵

On the contrary, “the Pope has power to change the Scriptures, either to encrease or diminish them as he thinks good.” So, Sir, teaches “that Church which is at Babylon.”⁶

O. C. Good. But to proceed.⁷ Further, Rev. Sir,

¹ Newman's Essay, p. 103. “Is it within?” “How readeest thou?”

² “With lies ye make the heart of the righteous sad,” &c.

³ Prop. No. I. See 1 Kings xxii. 21—23; 2 Thess. ii. 1—15.

⁴ “Thus you strengthen the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked ways, by promising him life” eternal, after his purgatorial torments, “IN PEACE.” “Requiescat in pace!”

⁵ Edg. Var. 129. “Jupiter-Papa god in Bithynia” (J. 362); just as the Jew-Peter is Jupiter now at Rome, or Gaeta. St. John also says, “Papa,” &c. Apoc. 17, 4, 5.

⁶ Hung. Conf. Vind. Quoted also by Elliott in Horæ Apoc. What says “Friend” Luca's “Tablet” to these confessions? See “A letter to the Earl of Shrewsbury.” “Babylon is Rome;” St. Jerome. Finch's Sketch.

⁷ Ezra iv. 1-6.

"standing you to the face, (as Paul withstood Peter, then an Elder; since a Pope: because he was to be blamed, as we think you are :) lest we be carried away with your dissimulation; allow us to ask, whether it be that "the Cup of the New Testament" is withheld in your "remembering in all things to keep the ordinances,"—not as you have improved upon them:—in this instance, in making "gaps, or loopholes:" No! No! but "as they were delivered unto us?"

Because we would ask, where, without "sacrilegiously changing,¹ or varying the word of God," "Jesus said, Eat ye ALL of this?" or, where "Jesus said, Take, drink, this is my blood?" Was it where you say in your mass, "Who, the day before He suffered," &c.? It being in your own Vulgate, "In qua nocte tradebatur," &c.² We ask these questions, because, if, as you are told, "To *separate*³ the mysteries be to commit a great sacrilege"—surely to corrupt the Word of God, must be a still more heinous crime!⁴ And yet this is done, where "the words are graven as with an iron pen, and with lead in THE ROCK," which should be to THE CHURCH "for ever."⁵ "Alas! my brother!" is it thus, that "as a schoolmaster you would bring 'your opponents' to Jesus Christ?" Being so taught "by an old prophet in Bethel,"⁶ are ye "not ashamed; yea, even confounded" at being made "to

¹ Prop. No. II.

² Cotter on the Mass, 232; Matt. xxvi. 20; Mark xiv. 17; 1 Cor. xi. 23; Paris Catech.

³ Pope Gelasius. J. 256. Prop. No. II. See note 4, page 13.

⁴ "Paralogismus," &c. "The true cause or meaning you suppress" (J. 44), and you know full well for what end. Whereas it is said, "Cursed . . . is he that destroyeth the text." J. 229. Prov. xxx. 6; Rev. xxii. 18, 19. "How readest thou?"

⁵ "Absolute submission to the Church," &c. Ess. on Rom. 92.

⁶ "The safer way is to walk by the Scriptures." J. 377.

couch down " under "the reproach we cause you to bear ? " For, observe,

First, That "after the manner of Pagans" you may promote Idolatry; you are detected in altogether leaving out the second Commandment of your God. And then, secondly, to exalt the worship of your hero-gods, that con-jointly they may be respected as is the Lord of Life; you "equal, and liken, and compare" the Saints' days with the Sabbath. Thus "setting up false witnesses."¹

Then, again, as though it "were a light thing to commit all these abominations,² you return to provoke God's anger" by "treading under foot the blood of the Covenant, as an unholy thing, doing despite unto the Spirit of Grace;" who has Himself declared that "without shedding of blood is no remission" of sin; "changing, varying," interpolating the Word of God; "lengthening, or shortening it, just as though it were the stirrup leathers of a saddle:"³—or, what you make it, merely "an old wive's fable." And know, that,

It is altogether in vain you bring forwards one or two deluded schismatic isolated fragments, broken off from *other*⁴ Churches as being exempt, and allowed as a boon to communicate "in keeping in all things the ordinances, as they were delivered unto us:"⁵ this proves but that "the familiars

¹ Just as O'Sullivan detects Al. Butter in translating "Honorarium ADORATIONEM," "Honoured!" Denying also that the images are worshipped in Latria! Apos. p. 392. See note 1, p. 11.

² "Whosoever forbiddeth the things commanded, or commandeth the things forbidden, is accursed." Basil, J. 207. Prop. III. Reading these passages from Bp. Jewel, are we to wonder that the priests, after having accepted the work, refused it?

³ St. F. de Sales, in his "Controversie," which he says, in speaking of Calvin, &c. Poor De Sales forgot how dangerous it is "to touch FITCH."

⁴ Again to quote that Hero Luther where he says, "God willing, I will make a hole in Tetsel's drum." And oh! that we may so do, Rev. Sir, in the drum of your ear, that henceforth you may "hear the voice of the Charmer."

⁵ Schismatic Greeks or Armenians.

have said, Peradventure they will be enticed ; and we shall prevail against them :" for "whosoever shall keep the whole law," and yet, "though he wist it not," through wilful "ignorance," offend in one point, "is guilty of all."¹

Alas, "alas, my brother !" Knew ye not that "Satan entered not into Judas, till after he had received the sop ?"²

And here, "that as seers ye may be ashamed,—as diviners confounded,—covering your lips ; for where is your answer from God ?" before ending this, the first part of our answer to your Epistle of "Roman Faith ;" allow of a few words of digression from your "dear brother in Jesus Christ."³

Pray, who, Rev. Sir, that possesses "a Testament"⁴ in his own favour, perjures himself in producing a *counterfeit to his own loss ?*⁵ Who, that has the credentials of "an ambassador," works wilily with false documents ? or, who, that is "the messenger of the Lord of Hosts," "concealeth the words of the Holy One," as you do ?

Are you not convicted by each of the propositions we have quoted ; do they not "stand staring and looking upon you ?"

We are told that "the roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." Yet, he roareth not, till secure of his prey.⁶

So, Rev. Sir, like the lion, "in voluntary humility ;" in

¹ For, after all, "Such are false Apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the Apostles of (Anti-)Christ."

² "So she caught him, and kissed him, and said, . . . I have peace offerings with me," &c. "But she lied." "So now ye sow much, but bring in little," &c. Hag. i. 6, 7.

³ "Let no man beguile you with enticing words."

⁴ "O my people ! what have I not done for thee ? yet ye testify against me."

⁵ Bordeaux New Test. False commandments—corrupted Bibles, &c.

⁶ At Gaeta, in "voluntary humility," the Pope prays to "THE Mediatrix"—"THE One Sole Advocate in Heaven :"—but in Protestant England, the Bishops pray directly to God. When does Rome's right hand forget its cunning ? "The heart worketh iniquity—with the mouth to destroy his neighbour."

"double speaking," in pious frauds; oh! how softly, how humbly do you advance, "prophesying not unto us right things," but "in speaking unto us smooth things," as unto "a dear brother in Jesus Christ,"—prophesying deceits;" lest, no doubt, our souls should "escape the snare of the fowler." For, were "the wolf to say, O my dear, let me in, that I may¹ shew you what great teeth I have. Would the door be opened?"

And, "the beast, that cometh up out of the earth," [who can² tell from whence; perhaps it may be from Gaeta!] were it, in speaking, "like a dragon," to put on one side the two horns; i. e. the Lamb's skin; with the which it is disguised; who would not at once perceive, that it was anything else than THE LAMB [i. e. "THE LORD'S CHRIST!!!"] for the which it would feign pass!³

But more immediately still, as a striking and unfeigned exemplification of these our parables; as A SHOW OF THE FRUIT,⁴ produced from Saint Liguori's moral Theology in double speaking,⁵—as in double acting; let us suppose, when enfeebled by disease, and stretched on a bed of death; a poor, ignorant man, to be visited, perhaps "in the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark⁶ night," by a rich "Catholic" lady; "a great woman;" of a great and lordly family:—who, approaching gently and softly; just as the lion or the wolf would come "in voluntary humility"—fearful of frightening a kid: and thus insinuatingly, and in

¹ A profane old wive's fable.

² See Elliott.

³ "The stump only of Dagon is left." "His heart is set as the heart of God." See Ezek. xxviii.; and Ext. Baine's Serm. 22.

⁴ Surely this is that of which the Bordeaux New Test. forewarns us, of "speaking false things through hypocrisy, having also the conscience cauterised," &c., so that it is dead to all principle of truth!

⁵ "Know ye not that to be joined to a ....., is to be one body? and this Saint, what is he but a .....?"

⁶ He being YET "ignorant of Satan's devices!"

a most bland manner towards this her "dear brother in Jesus Christ." Yes, let us suppose this, "the Catholic" lady, thus coming "delicately,"¹ to convince the poor, ignorant man, that she is come to "snatch him from the jaws of the INFERNAL DESTROYER,"² i. e. from that heresy by which he has hitherto been defiled ; being above all others that which pertinaciously upholds tenets contrary to the [ROMAN] faith," &c. And that this "Catholic" lady, a "lover of whatsoever things are true," "previous to his becoming a member"³ of her holy Church, reads such prayers as any profession of Christians might say ; and after that, frequently reads to him such prayers as Catholics only make use of."⁴ [Her own words.]

Suppose this, Rev. Sir ; and it is no fiction :—and then, dispassionately we ask ; whether so to act, be not at once a direct exemplification of "Saint Liguori's moral Theology"—a direct "departure from the faith" of the Bible, to "the Roman faith ;"⁵ and "the giving heed to seducing spirits"—"spirits of error, to doctrines taught by devils?" is it not to⁶ creep "in voluntary humility" as the lion, to seize his prey ? as "the wolf, in sheep's clothing ?" as the hidden snake in the grass,"⁷ to sting ? and, above all, as "the un-

¹ May it be like "king Agag." As to her doctrine.

² Recantation, 77. A prayer used by Apostates at Florence. Oh ! how blessed, so to be ACCURSED !!!

³ "The people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." "Whom ignorantly SHE worshipped, Him declare we unto her." "The man that doeth this," &c. Bp. of Gibraltar's Charge, 38.

⁴ A PRIORESS. See Coventry Standard, October 8th, 1847. "But she lied." "Should we again join in affinity with the people of these abominations, in breaking the Commandments ?" In these, the words of the lady Prioress, we may suppose that, at least, we have her meaning. And, "If she does not lie, we cannot but think what she must appear to be." "Sir, Unless you lie—you are a rascal." Dr. Johnson.

⁵ From Liguori's teaching,—Was she not "to take heed to speak ALL that the Lord" ["her God, the Pope"] "hath put in her mouth !" Title page.

⁶ Title page.

⁷ End of note 1, p. 3.

clean spirit speaking by the mouth of the FALSE PROPHET, TO DECEIVE ?¹

Thus then the poor, ignorant man, being now turned aside unto "the Catholic" "crooked ways" of the "Catholic" lady—or, as² you express yourself, in speaking of a like perversion from the truth,—"having been *enlightened by God's holy Spirit to comprehend*³ these the points of the Catholic [Roman] faith;"—yes, the poor, ignorant man, having, through the "flattery of her lips, and the much fair speech" of the "Catholic" lady, been brought to "taste of her grapes, and of her figs." Having entered "her vineyard," "even our enemies themselves being our judges;" we will leave it to them to decide, whether "the clusters of grapes" produced, be from "the⁴ brook Eshcol," or, "of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah." Whether "the basket contains very good figs,"⁵ THE FIGS FIRST RIPE;⁶ or whether they be such very naughty figs, so bad "that they cannot be eaten."

As also how, transgressing against the God of their fathers, the Rock of their "OPPONENTS;"—"going a whoring after the gods" that "the smith hath fashioned;" we will, with God's blessing, set forth in this,

¹ "Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also; Go forth, and do so." Being "delivered to do all these abominations."

² See what Irenæus saith "of dismembering the limbs of Truth." J. 260.

³ Priest's letter. Oh! how ACCURSED, so to be blessed! Note 2, p. 20. "To make one proselyte, and when he be made, ye make him twofold more a child of hell than yourselves."

⁴ Bordeaux New Test. &c. Moral Theology. Glories of Mary. Psalter of Bonaventura, &c.

⁵ Whether the Mysteries of the Scriptures are "grief, torment, and pain to the Devils" only, may be judged of, from the care with which they are suppressed and corrupted and vilified by the priesthood. They are seized this spring at Florence. See note 1, p. 3; and J. 327.

⁶ But say they, "We will not walk therein." Jer. vi. 16.

PART II.

KEEP THE THREE PROPOSITIONS IN MIND.

O. C. As is asserted, can it be possible, Rev. Sir, that by certain Wisemen,¹ MARIOLATRY was altogether forgotten in the instruction of one, lately "snatched² from the jaws of the INFERNAL DESTROYER;" although "enlightened by God's holy Spirit, to comprehend the points of the Catholic" [ROMAN] "faith?"

Armenian-Romish-Priest of Christ, and of Mary; starting back most indignantly; replies,—MARIOLATRY indeed!" "IDOLATRY!³ can a more frightful charge be laid to the score of any Christian?" When, even to "worship the creature, CON-JOINTLY with the Creator, we consider as an ENORMOUS CRIME."⁴

O. C. This, Rev. Sir, is mere "mammering." Ye say that ye are perfect; but we will prove you. Ye no longer "feed beside the Shepherd's tent;"—the footsteps of the flock "ye have lost." "Wisdom shall not die with you." A feather, or a straw is sufficient to shew from what quarter is the wind.

We read, "that in the second visit"—some French prisoners told⁵ that truly blessed woman, the late Elizabeth Fry: whose name is said to have been "a word of beauty:"

¹ To see what a priest of "the ROMAN faith" is, turn to Turton's Obs. on Wiseman; Palmer's Letters; and his Gris. Vind.; and Tyler's Prim. Chris. Worship, Appendix, &c. "There he is to be seen without so much as a fig leaf to hide his shame."

² It is so said of Sibthorpe.

³ Dr. Wiseman's own words. Ess. on Rom. 329.

⁴ From the Priest's letter. And another "lover of whatsoever things are true" hath it — that "Accursed is the image worshipper. Accursed are they who worship any but the One true God." And "Accursed are they who acknowledge any but ONE Mediator, THE LORD JESUS." Waterworth's own words. Her. Dis. 97.

⁵ Life of Eliz. Fry, 271, 391.

that "since her first visit, they had thought and talked so much of religion, that they had subscribed to purchase"—not a Bible—but, "celle-là, pointing to an image of the Blessed Virgin." And afterwards, in the Pyrenees ; those simple-minded peasants, in entering into conversation with that sainted woman, E. Fry, assured her, that they "ADORED THE VIRGIN IN THOSE PARTS."¹

But, Rev. Sir, in alike discarding both feathers and straws, if "misliked" as "unreverently misensed"² by you—forewarning me as you do, against "hyperbolical expressions of writers" unauthorised ; from unexceptionable writers ; men famous in your own congregation, as men of renown ; choose for yourself, "five smooth stones," as "out of the brook ;" and we will see, whether with them, themselves "being witnesses against you," we cannot "stay you in the name of the Lord of Hosts."

First then, as according to "the Roman Faith," Romanists "implore God³ that they may be taught by the admonitions of Saint L., &c. Holy mother Church declaring that "his works, after having been more than twenty times rigorously examined, have been found not to contain one word deserving of censure ; read, Rev. Sir, what follows,⁴

P. of Mary, reads. "ALL is subject to MARY'S EMPIRE, EVEN GOD HIMSELF." "OUR SALVATION IS OFTEN MORE SPEEDILY EFFECTED BY INVOKING MARY, THAN IN

¹ Of course they worship her ; or, for what end dethrone "the great High Priest, Jesus, the Son of God," to place her upon the Throne of GRACE ? as it is said she is. Glories of Mary, Ital. Ed., Livorno, 1842, p. 199. The inscription of Heb. iv. 16, is also over the front of the Church of Sta. Maria della Grazia, ROMA. The worship of the B. V. is strictly forbidden also by St. Epiphanius, as "Queen of Heaven." See Palmer's letters, v. 74 ; and Prop. No. III.

² J. 32 and 4. Is it written ? "Search the Scriptures."

³ Five are chosen, viz : Saints Liguori, Bonaventura, and T. Aquinas ; with two Popes, viz : Pius vii. and Greg. xvi. First Saint, Liguori.

⁴ "Awf. Disc." 38, 23.

CALLING UPON JESUS." "MARY IS THE DOOR OF SECURITY—THE FOUNTAIN OF GRACE—AND THE MEDIATRIX BETWEEN GOD AND MEN."¹ "MEN HAVE BUT ONE SOLE ADVOCATE IN HEAVEN, AND IT IS YOU, HOLY VIRGIN." Then we are told that Jesus, [forgetting His promise :] casting out those who come to Him, permits men to go to the Father, otherwise than by Himself. The Blessed Virgin passing them into Paradise—and causing "skeletons" *that are running over the mountains, from over the impassable gulf, to be "pardoned their mortal sins!"*²

And, as the last passage we will quote from this saint—we will show, that "Christ is not to tread the wine press alone:" for, "as you have clothed me [says Jesus Christ] with your humanity, I shall invest you with my DIVINITY." . . . "Why should not the mother enjoy, CONJOINTLY with the Son, the honours of Royalty?"

O. C. Be pleased to proceed next with Saint Buonaventura.³

P. of Mary reads on. "Sixtus V., recording with approbation the speech⁴ before made by P. Sixtus IV., viz., "That the Holy Spirit seemed⁵ to have spoken in him," [i. e. in St. Buonaventura] "wills and decrees that both publickly and privately, in schools, colleges, &c., &c., the Saint's works shall be cited, brought forward," &c.

As for example, where the Saint says in addressing the

¹ See in note 4, p. 22, how "the great W." curses Saint Liguori!

² Glor. of Mary, Dubl. 41, p. 137, 186; Ital. 213; Dubl. 145, 177, 167, 169, and 28. Here we have Newman's "Deification of St. Mary" fully DEVILOPed. Newman, p. 405. The priest says, to worship the Creature CON-JOINTLY with the Creator is AN ENORMOUS CRIME. "The great W." says, "Accursed is he who worships any but the One true GOD"—or GODDESS, should have been added.

³ The Second Saint.

⁴ Venn's Corres. 76.

⁵ "But he lied." However, as "the Prophets" of old "prophesied falsely," why not now "the False Prophet himself?"

Blessed Virgin, "Incline to us the countenance of God, COMPEL HIM TO HAVE MERCY ON SINNERS"¹—as on the travelling gentleman's skeleton above. "Thou didst FORCE the uncreated word to take flesh from thee."² "Through the fulness of thy grace, the contents of hell rejoice in being liberated." "The Lord" [even this verse is applied to the Blessed Virgin!!!] "The Lord said unto our Lady, Sit, mother, on my right hand," &c.

And are you [the Priest of Mary asks, in the words of his letter,] are you, my friend, "scandalized at these expressions as hyperbolic?" I acknowledge, that these expressions, taken by themselves, are, in their plain and literal sense, indefensible, and blasphemous, which no Catholic will deny: but that they are not incapable of a modified and orthodox meaning, in what is called AN ACCOMMODATING SENSE, is also equally certain."³

O. C. Good. Only allow with your brother—"Priest of Mary," that this, "the Psalter," so highly recommended by their holinesses, contains "most awful blasphemy:"⁴—then; how in an "orthodox" manner, or meaning, it is to be taught, as "Roman Faith," in "an accommodating sense;" you can settle between yourselves.

So far, we have two Saints, as witnesses to prove that it is not "the Lord whom ye have chosen to serve." And next, ¹ Her. Dis. 174. Are these things taken from "the Lamb's Book of Life"; or but written with Ink, and not in the Spirit of the Living God? Prop. No. I.

² "Ahab served Baal a little,"—these "great W.'s" serve their gods not a little. "The Bigot will not reason; the Slave dare not; and the Fool cannot reason." But is it to be a bigot, or illiberal, to condemn such appalling blasphemy as this?

³ Waterworth's own words. Venn's Corr. 103. These two "great W.'s" being so agreed, may well "walk together." Prop. No. II.

⁴ Waterworth allowed that the Psalter contained "MOST AWFUL BLASPHEMY." Her. Dis. 175.

as "the voice of the Pope is the voice of God ;"¹ be pleased to read what follows ;

P. of Mary reads, "Jesus, Joseph, and Mary, I offer to you my heart and my soul."²

"Jesus, Joseph, and Mary, assist me in my last agony."²

"Jesus, Joseph, and Mary, may my soul expire in peace with you."

O. C. And is this, Rev. Sir, such a prayer as any Christian may say to God?³ Who, "as a jealous God," declares that "He will be worshipped and served alone." That he will no more "give His glory to another, than His praise to graven images!" When H. Martyn heard the blessed name of his Saviour, blasphemed, he burst into tears! And do you, calling yourself a Christian, "liken, compare, and equal" these sinful creatures with the adorable GOD-MAN, Jesus Christ? Is it thus you determine not to know anything save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified? What, are these sinful creatures worthy with the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, "conjointly, together," &c.

Is this, Rev. Sir, what your boast is, in these "the points of your [Roman] faith, to be enlightened by GOD's holy Spirit?" And in refusing to "take counsel of the Lord," in these the awful visitations of "coming events, that cast such portentous shadows before:" will you still "add sin to sin," in proclaiming God to be a liar, in saying that the Blessed Virgin Mary is "Immaculate ?" when "the Divine oracles" assert, that "ALL—ALL have sinned, both Jews and Gentiles;" and, that to say otherwise, "is to make GOD a liar."¹ Or, will it extenuate your guilt in saying you are AUTHORISED, in blessing, to pray to this "most blessed Trinity for a triple benediction ;" inasmuch as by "the voice of a Pope, which is the voice of God," you are assured that "God has taken St. Peter into the fellowship even of the INDIVISIBLE TRINITY!"² What, at the bare mention, or idea of such "A UNITY IN TRINITY" do you not shudder,—when, "conjointly to worship or serve the creature with the CREATOR," you yourself declare to be "AN ENORMOUS CRIME ?"

¹ Third Witness. Pope Pius VII. "The voice," &c. Words of St. Liguori, Mariolatry, 85. The two "great W.'s," vying with each other, even this prayer of Pius VII. is vindicated, Palmer's lett. v. 36. And yet, surely, this is one of those awful bursts of Vatican thunder, which the voice from heaven tells us to seal up and not to write. Apoc. Sketches, 109.

² Christ being here worshipped with demons, or dead men, well may it be called a "ROMAN faith," as being "taught by devils." Title page.

³ It is modest to write "SAY," St. Aug. having said "We must in the prayers that we make to God, not chirp like birds . . . they know not what they sing" . . . any more than do the unlearned when they hear Latin read. J. 8. 1 Cor. xiv. Note 4, p. 20.

"As with the mother, so with the daughter." As with "the Church," "SEMPER EADEM," so with the Priest. As is seen from the early corruptions of "the Roman faith," when the fathers first prayed for the repose of the dead,³ well might it be said, that unless "the LORD direct our steps,—our feet go down to death,—our steps take hold on hell:"⁴ for, the first corruption soon imperceptibly glided off into the greatest DEVELOPMENT ; namely, instead of the Blessed Virgin being prayed FOR into her "DEIFICATION,"⁵ in being placed directly, as the Jehovah God himself, upon the "Throne of GRACE"⁶—it being proclaimed, that "ALL is subject to MARY'S EMPIRE, EVEN GOD HIMSELF."⁷

¹ "A heretic is one who understandeth the Scriptures otherwise than the sense of the Holy Ghost requireth." J. 261. Is this also one of Jewel's "ridiculous caricatures."

² Lectures for the Times, 309. "Indivisible." Bonaf. viii. J. 439.

³ Pope's Rom. Misquotations, 70.

⁴ Ancient Christianity throughout.

⁵ Newman's Essays, 403. "Mary is omnipotent." Glory of Mary. Dubl. 138.

⁶ "Ad thunum GRATIE, scilicet ad MARIAM." Glory of Mary. Livorno, 199, &c. Note 1, p. 23.

⁷ Glory of Mary, Eng. 137. Note 4, p. 12.

And here, observe, Rev. Sir, we have no "hyperbolical expressions of unauthorised writers:"—yet, necessarily the dethronement of "the Great High Priest, Jesus, the Son of God," who "in all points was tempted like as we are, yet" He, alone, "without sin:"—and, that too, to make place for;—OR CONJOINTLY TO REIGN WITH one, who, herself, in the temple; according to the law of the Lord, brought her own sin-offering as an atonement, that she might be clean !¹

OwN, therefore, Rev. Sir, that now indeed in being convinced of this sin—and "as we speak the truth, why not believe us?" that, "as Issachar," you are brought to cōuch down under a burden too heavy to bear !

For with the Socinian you must either deny that the Lord Jesus Christ, is both God and man : or, from "the habit of blaspheming," you must exalt the creature to "Deification."²

You must no longer halt between two opinions; "if God be God, Him only, in worshipping, as a jealous God, must you serve." "Babylon the great has already fallen" to Gaeta!³ the god whom you, and "the Cardinals adore," "has fallen,"⁴ and been carried from his place :—the stump is only left"—"and the feet of them which carried him away," LET US HOPE, are ready at hand for you ! Yes, halt no longer :—"the Devil's wrath is now so great, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."

¹ Compare Luke ii. 24, with Lev. xii. 8.

² The blessed Trinity is represented as all wrath, but Mary as all love. See Isaiah lxvi. 12, 13; "God is LOVE." Apoc. Sketches, 114. See also Divine Warning, p. 326. See note 1, p. 12.

³ Fleming on the Apoc. The unclean "speckled bird" has now all the clean birds up against her. An owl, in Italy, is placed upon a perch at noon day, to attract the other birds. It is well known how fearing, he HATES THE LIGHT. Jer. xii. 9.

⁴ Fleury. Mariolatry 94. Ext. Baine's Sermon. 23. Note 4, p. 12.

"As the deaf adder, ye have stopped your ears;" till now God "has sent serpents and cockatrices among you." Three Saints as witnesses, witness against you. Thus then, as was "King Antiochus slain three several times"—so have we slain you thrice. "Azarias, the son of Ananias"—alias "Raphael, one" of your "seven holy angels," you may call upon to present your prayers;¹ but it will be in vain:—"The hearts of the children of men are only known to God." So that, as twice more you must be slain, pray read on.

P. of Mary reads on. "Pope Gregory XVI.'s Prayers." "O IMMACULATE² QUEEN OF HEAVEN, AND OF ANGELS! I ADORE YOU. IT IS YOU WHO HAVE DELIVERED ME FROM HELL. IT IS YOU FROM WHOM I LOOK FOR ALL MY SALVATION." MAY THE BLESSED VIRGIN "WATCH OVER US, WRITING TO YOU, AND LEAD OUR MINDS BY HER HEAVENLY INSPIRATIONS." MARY "IS OUR GREATEST HOPE, YEA, THE ENTIRE GROUND OF OUR HOPE."³

O. C. These prayers, Rev. Sir, let us hope "the poor, ignorant man" had read to him in Latin: or, not being such prayers, certainly, "as ANY Christian could use;" we presume, that "the Catholic" lady brought them "forwards after" the poor, ignorant man had been "ENLIGHTENED BY

¹ 1 Macc. vii. 4; 2 Mac. i. 13-16; and ix. 28; Job. v. 12; and xii. 15. Poor Jason says very humbly of his uninspired work, that "if slenderly and meanly, it is that which he could attain unto." 2 Macc. ii. 23; xv. 38. Compare this with Gal. i. 6—12.

² Fourth Witness, Pope Gregory XVI. Mariolatry, 42, 32, 30. Having this prayer, is it to be believed that a Bishop should, in preaching, venture to say, "Just as St. Paul prayed to his own converts, or I pray to you, I say to you, pray for me, my brethren. I SAY THE SAME to the Blessed Mother of Jesus Christ, to St. whose acknowledged sanctity has procured for them, through the grace and MERITS OF CHRIST," &c. Ext. Baine's Sermon. p. 14. These "great W.'s," and Bishops, Saints, and Popes, all seem to go but by the dial of SAINT LIGUORI'S "MORAL THEOLOGY!"

³ "Does he know his own meaning?"

GOD'S HOLY SPIRIT, to understand these your points of [Roman] faith ?"

And for this your rock, "the entire ground of all your hopes, and your SALVATION," it is ; is it, Rev. Sir ; that you would have us give up OUR ROCK !¹ What, after having been taught, that "Truly our souls are to wait upon God ;" not upon a god—that "from HIM cometh OUR SALVATION?" And that it is "the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, who is come, that guides us into all truth :" and not one, who, herself, was formerly prayed for. Surely, surely, Rev. Sir, thus in direct, avowed, open Paganism again, as a dog to turn to the vomit, and as the sow that was washed, to go back to her wallowing in such mire"—in bestowing upon sin-offering creatures, the peculiar attributes of the Deity—whatever "the habit may be of blaspheming ;" is even infinitely worse than "not so much as to have known whether there be any Holy Ghost !"

P. of Mary. Pardon me, my friend. It is ONLY IN "HYPERdulia"² that we "ADORE the Blessed Virgin," the lower worship of Doulia is an inferior worship, or service, and we . . .

O. C. Consequently, in thus "justifying thyself thine own mouth shall condemn thee ;" showing that "in changing the truth of God into a lie, you worship and serve the creature more than the Creator, who is to be blessed for ever, Amen," which is "the mystery of iniquity," ripened, and matured.

¹ See Deut. xxxii. 29–33. "Unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption," as is the Blessed Virgin Mary to Rome. From "Christ's holy home," the Vatican, we learn, that "an Indulgence may be had, if it be possible to ravish the Blessed Virgin." But here we have a still greater sin, viz : this string of beads of blasphemy offered up daily to her. Can this also be "Indulged" away into the depths of the sea ?" Apoc. Sketches, 129.

² "SIVE TU DEUS ES, SIVE TU DEA." J. 551. "Jupitrix."

Read, we pray you, the following verses, which so clearly set forth how “you were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men: turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, in denying the ONLY Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.”

P. of Mary, reads. 1st. “Serve God:” (i. e. in Greek, in Doulia) &c. 2nd. “. . . Serving the Lord:” (in Doulia) &c. 3rd. “. . . doing service,” (Doulia) &c. 4th. “. . . turn to God from images to serve (in Doulia) the living and true God.”¹

O. C. And now, Rev. Sir, “the snare being laid, art thou not taken,” before thou wast aware? having striven against the Lord, thou art not only found, but CAUGHT. As “a Priest of Mary’s” thou “art detected, decked out in her earrings, and her jewels”—wilt thou therefore still say that “this is not to forget God?”

Nor is this all. For the “more awful disclosure” must be made known, that, while your own Bible declares, that “that which IS MADE WITH HANDS” [namely, a Cross, or an IMAGE, &c.] “is ACCURSED, as well as he who made it,” &c. being nothing but “a rotten piece of wood,”² yet, in spite of this, as though they were of the ancient Babylon, that is, of “Roman faith:” “The faithful are called upon to ADORE the HOLY FACE in thanksgiving, for ITS having preserved the Roman Duchy from the havoc of the Cholera.” Yes, “ACCURSED” as is “this rotten piece of wood”—nevertheless in ADORATION of Latria—the supremest worship, is it

¹ 1st. Matt. vi. 24; 2nd. Rom. xii. 11; 3rd. Eph. vi. 7; 4th. 1 Thess. i. 9. From “IMAGES,” Vulgate. See also Lev. xxvi. 1, 30; and Wisdom xiii. xiv. xv. Rom. i. 23; 1 John v. 21, Vulgate.

² Wisd. xiv. 1–8, &c. Who but “Satan, in persuading could have prevailed” with you, and your brother-Priest, in causing you to set forth, that “God is not angry when an Image of a holy person is set up:” as you would have taught me, from Deut. xvi. 22, and Rom. i. 23? Ask, “Is it written?”

to be served, as is also the Cross, in a service superior to the Deity himself !¹

For as you have just read in the inspired Volume, while the great Jehovah God ; “the I AM :” is Himself worshipped, or served, in what you yourself designate an inferior worship, or service : viz., that of “Doulia :” Holy Mother Church sanctions THE ADORATION OF THE CROSS IN LATRIA, THE SUPREMEST ADORATION ! Thus then the Jehovah God, “the I AM”—as Him also, “whom the Father sanctifies,” you authoritatively BLASPHEME !

And, that as “blasphemers” you may further prove “the last days are come ;” you teach by the mouth of this, the fifth witness brought to slay you ; that “the images themselves of the Blessed Virgin are to be ADORED as is she herself,” in HYPERDULIA : while God—as though He, too, like your “images of rotten pieces of wood ;” and your god of paste, “could see corruption,”²—is degraded thus below the work of men’s hands ; below the “very gods, after which you go a whoring !” It being not only affirmed, but authorised :—and that in “no hyperbolical expression of unauthorised writers ;” but by one of the canonized pillars of your ¹ Edg. Var. 422. If the “Devils believe and tremble” in hearing God’s word, what SHOULD “the messengers of the Lord of Hosts” FEEL, at having thus, in corrupting, blasphemed “the Covenant ?” “We do perfectly ADORE the reverend IMAGES, and do ACCURSE THEM [“your dear brothers in Jesus Christ,” Rev. Sir ?] that profess otherwise.”.....“The honour given to the Image [is not given to the Image, but] redoundeth unto the pattern.” Thus then, IMAGES ARE honoured, that is to say, they are not honoured : [but “perfectly ADORED.”] “As the bread and wine leave not their former nature ; that is, they utterly leave their former nature.” “From the words of that most fond and lewd second Council of Nice.” J. 548.

² The Hostia. Ps. xvi. 10. “Saint Liguori visited every day the holy Sacrament, and also the IMAGE of St. Mary, BESEECHING FROM THEM, the grace of perseverance.” Palmer’s Lett. iii. As a victim, or a “Hostia,” the unconsecrated BREAD is offered up to God. And “the cup,” unblessed, for the salvation of the people ; although, when blessed, they are not to participate in the wine ! What idiotic blasphemy ! See Cotter’s Mass, p. 83 and 102.

Church ; that "as is the prototype, so shall the image itself be ADORED." That is, "the Cross" of "rotten wood" "in Latria ;" that the "smith and the carpenter have fashioned into the figure" of "corruptible man." And the image of the Blessed Virgin in hyperdulia ; a worship superior to that in which God Himself is SERVED ! Can a "more awful disclosure" than this be made ? Seeing "in the Beloved," no "beauty that you should desire Him"—"in changing the truth of God into a lie, you worship and serve the creature, more than the Creator !"

"Alas ! my brother !" and now, still, with Wisemen and New-men, in fictitious astonishment ; "feigning yourselves to be just men," will you start back indignantly, in hearing the word "MARIOLATRY" pronounced, as did "the Ephraimites" of old, when they, too, like you, were detected ?

Moreover, but for "the MARIOLATRY" of your Church—you would not have been addressed as Priest of a sin-offering creature.

P. of Mary. Oh ! that is just as you take it. When your Bible-clasp-breaker, Luther, so addressed his letter to "T. Braun, *holy and venerable*¹ Priest of Christ, and of MARY," observe ; that it was before his apostasy, in 1507. And, besides, read Saint Liguori's works that "are declared not to contain² one word deserving of censure ;" and in his Glories of Mary, so authorised, so approved, we there learn, that "the principal office given to Mary, when she appeared on earth, was to raise man from sin,⁴ and to reconcile him

¹ Judg. xii.

² Being then "a Bastard, not a Son."

³ Divers "spirits of error, doctrines taught by Devils—speaking false things through hypocrisy." Title page.

⁴ It is said by this SAINT Liguori that "MARY is THE beginning, the middle, and the end of our felicity : " (Gl. of Mary, Dub. 179) THEREFORE, "the ALPHA and OMEGA, the BEGINNING and the ENDING," of "ROMAN FAITH." "Then opened He their understandings, that they might understand the Scriptures."

with God; Feed your goats, said the Lord in creating her.”
[Where?]

O. C. Indeed! was it so? To become the Virgin Mother of the man Christ Jesus: who, as man, was “without Father :” and as GOD, was “without MOTHER, without descent :” of Him, who as “her Saviour,” was to save her, AS US, from sin : was surely, Rev. Sir, “AS A SIGN”—“THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE given to Mary!” And, besides,

Who but GOD Himself can forgive, or “raise man from sin?” What, “as a master of Israel,” is it as “*one of the peculiar dogmas of your*¹ Church,” that you thus teach? Is it “Mary who reconciles, through the blood she shed for us, all things unto herself?” As in like manner you bestow upon her the peculiar attributes of the Holy Ghost, in asking her to “lead your minds by her heavenly inspirations?”

Is it, too, “with the Spirit of the living God,” that you say “Mary is OMNIPOTENT?” Prove that she is: and we will then prove that there “are GODS two, and LORDS two.” For if she be “OMNIPOTENT,” it is direct “missense” to suppose that she is not likewise omniscient, and omnipresent.²

But alas! “alas my brother!” that that spirit should so “in persuading, have prevailed!” If, however, with such food as is this your “Roman faith”—convenient as it may be

¹ Last line, Title page.

² First, the Blessed Virgin is prayed for by Basil, Gregory of Naz., Cyril of Alex., and in a Liturgy ascribed to St. Chrysostom; and now she is declared to be “OMNIPOTENT,” to be made into “a DIVINITY;” and by Pius IX. to have been sinless,—St. John saying quite the contrary: or, that then GOD is made a liar. See note 3, p. 27. The creature is above GOD! Note 7, p. 27. As Jesus Christ attained the very lowest abyss of His humiliation, when, as “the great whore,” “the mother of harlots,” “they stripped him, and put on him THE scarlet robe,” that he might appear as the personification of SIN: So will His great glory be exemplified, when, “by the brightness of his coming” this “mother of abominations of the earth” shall “be destroyed.” “Come then,” “come quickly, Lord Jesus!”

for "GOATS;"¹ you are content; we envy you not. In "the Be-loved:" in "the chiefest of ten thousand," we find "that beauty that we should desire HIM:" and in being "the Priests of God and of Christ:" and "the sheep of His fold" it is, that we glory.

Now, "as the old prophet" of Gaeta would not certainly have approved the Saint's saying, "by the word of the Lord," Mary was so taught, "had he lied:" from whence is it, Rev. Sir, that this charge is taken?²

P. of Mary. Where, exactly the Saint took it from, I cannot tell; see Ezek. xiii. 22. Or, probably near where the Saint tells us, that "Jesus said in the Gospel, no one can come to me, if my mother does not attract him by her prayers." Or where we prove the early establishment of our mass, in the words, "They offered to the Lord the sacrifice of the mass, and fasted," &c.³ or where St. Paul tells us "We obtain merit towards God by such sacrifice," &c.

O. C. Be pleased, Rev. Sir, except in your Bordeaux New Testament, to point out any where, where Jesus ever says, "My Mother." "Woman, what have I to do with thee." "Woman, behold thy son:" and to the disciple, "Behold thy mother:" these notices of the Blessed Virgin we read; but no where the words,⁴ "My Mother."⁵

¹ Surely "the Centaur is less fabulous," than is such a "Roman" monster, as a Christian-Marian-Goat! See "Dr. Young's Centaur, not fabulous."

² Was it from Rev. xxi. 8; or from Jno. x. 1, 9, or xiv. 6; or 1 Tim. ii. 1-5? "How readest thou?" "Search the Scriptures."

³ Acts xiii. 2; Bordeaux New Test. And a "more awful disclosure" cannot be made, than that this "abomination, rather than an oblation," requires such blasphemy and lies to prove it and uphold it! J. 513.

⁴ See Prim. Chris. Worsh. "But if the offering up Christ be a blasphemous fable, a dangerous deceit"—(which indisputably it is—) even to those perverted by the "Roman faith;" what wrath, or indignation from God, is there, that may not be expected to fall upon that country, whose Prime Minister defies the Almighty to vengeance, in sending out as the representative of his Sovereign—not so perverted—a Governor, who has so daily to 'blaspheme!' See "Aids to Prophetic Enquiry," p. 80.

⁵ "Before eating, Liguori licked the floor with his tongue." Palmer's Let-

And in such "moral Theology" as is this, of your "Bordeaux New Testament," is it, that as "a schoolmaster to bring us to Jesus Christ;" you set Him forth as "the way, the truth, and the life?" If so, no wonder that the late Archbishop of Paris, having been so instructed in "Roman faith," should have said, "He hoped to atone for his Archiepiscopal sins by the violent death he died in the street."¹

Such being the pollutions of the word of God, by Saints, Popes, Archbishops, &c., no wonder that such a "Roman faith" predominates!

But why "wonder with this great admiration?"

Are we to be "ASTONIED," that even they who in "rejecting the engrafted word, which is able to save their souls," should be able to atone for their own sins; when the Archbishop of Lucca, "led by the error of the wicked heretics," calls upon "the faithful to ADORE" a huge doll,² that he assures the people saved the Roman Duchy from the Cholera?

Than this, can "Priests clothed in albs," make a "more awful disclosure?"³

Surely, Rev. Sir, when thus teaching, you must forget, that "the Lord had no respect for Cain's offering," although "of the fruit of the ground;" and not his "own meritorious works."

Whereas here, "the obtaining merit towards God," thus ters, iii. 25. For telling wilfully, and that about "THE TRUTH" ITSELF, such "lies in hypocrisy," would it not have been more appropriate to have "cauterised" the tongue? Title page. At one time SAINT Liguori "was raised more than a foot from the ground." Lett. i. 21. This is taught by a Christian Church, as are the miracles of the Bible. Are we then to wonder at the infidelity that so abounds; especially in the "Heart of Popery," (see note 2, p. 39,) the SAINTS so "persuading and prevailing?"

¹ What, was such a death required for an Archbishop, when we are assured, that "EVEN REPENTANCE IS NOT REQUISITE INDULGENCES SAVE NOT ONLY THE LIVING, BUT THE DEAD?" Apoc. Sketches, p. 129.

² "Idol. Worship. of Virgin Mary," p. 16. "Is it written?"

³ Bordeaux New Test. Rev. iv. 4. "How readest thou?"

by his own suffering,¹ “reveals” altogether the whole “mystery of iniquity,” in a Catholic Archbishop’s trusting “to the filthy rags of his own righteousness” for “salvation :” instead of to “the blood of the Lamb which cleanseth from ALL SIN.” While, O wretched man that he was! as an infidel;² he had but to look for peace in Purgatory : not entertaining the smallest hope whatever,

“Of being a glorious guest,

“WHERE the wicked CEASE from troubling,

“WHERE the weary are at REST!”

Oh ! how like is this to an officiating Archbishop of “the ROMAN FAITH,”³ who, outwardly, though “in scarlet colour, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls ; having a golden cup in his hand full of abominations ;” is nevertheless, while in teaching such “doctrines of devils,” and “errors of wicked heretics”—such moral Theology as is this of holy Mother Church, inwardly, but as was Inez de Castro, when, in being exhumed, she was enthroned : that is, ONE ENTIRE MASS OF CORRUPTION AND PUTRIDNESS.

P. of Mary. Are then the gates of Hell to prevail against “the Church ?”⁴

O. C. Search the Scriptures. As in the Psalms, Saint Buonaventura, effacing the word Jehovah, writes the name of the Blessed Virgin; so go you and do likewise, in reading Rome for “Babylon,” in Jeremiah li.; and the Revelations xviii. : and for “the Prince of Tyre,” read, the Pope, in

¹ Bordeaux New Test. Heb. xiii. 16. Text Book, 59.

² HEB. iii. 17-19. Note 2, p. 8, and note 4, p. 13. Is the “REST” of Purgatory—which is said for the time being, to exceed the torments of Hell—that of which GOD speaks? Palmer’s Letters, vi.

³ See in what “spurious” dresses for “genuine,” Dr. W——n (a titular Bishop) appears. Tyler’s Prim. Christ. Worsh., App.; and in Turton’s Obs.

⁴ “Golden cups now, and Treen Priests,” (Bonafacius. J. 120.) Do they make a Church? without “teaching the people to observe ALL things whatsoever Jesus Christ commanded?” Apoc. Sketches, 232.

Ezekiel xxviii.; and you will then know that of which you are at present ignorant.

God is now "rendering to Babylon her recompence." And with that "great city," destruction would come upon all, but that many will be found, who, "having lived with Christ, will reign with Him;" although "as brands plucked out of the fire," they "had received the mark of the beast."

Yes, "loving many freely, God will, and has healed their backslidings," "if born sons of the giant." But, how differently to those, who "crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame, by a voluntary relinquishment of, and apostacy from the Gospel, the faith, rule, and obedience thereof," in worshipping and serving the "one only God, through the one sole, and only Mediator and Advocate, the man Jesus Christ."

So that, if in spite of holy Mother Church, and her "Roman faith,¹ and doctrines taught of devils," the sinner trust entirely in the merits of the Saviour: remembering throughout life, that "without holiness no one shall see the Lord"—although nursed in the hold of every foul spirit—although from their birth surrounded by Mariolatry: yet, if only outwardly "marked by the beast:"—only nominally holding to GAETA; the branches of many shall spread, and their beauty be as the olive tree, growing as the lily, and casting forth their roots as Libanon."

Whereas those who uphold and countenance the "moral Theology" of your "SAINTS;" especially after "the awful

¹ "SIRS"—Were there then two infallibles? "SIRS, what must I do to be saved? BELIEVE," &c. Canon xii. "If any one shall say, that justifying faith is nothing else than reliance on the Divine mercy remitting sin for Christ's sake, or that that by which we are JUSTIFIED is RELIANCE, and reliance only, let him be ACCUSED." And this, although St. Paul assures that "While we are yet sinners, Christ died for us," "being justified *FREE*LY by his grace." Rom. v. 8, and iv. 24.

Disclosure” made to them, though, through wilful ignorance they wist it not ; yet must they be as the false lights from a beacon, to OTHERS—and as “ a leafless tree, upon the top of a mountain—bereft of its branches, to themselves !”

“ Whosoever is of the faith, is blessed with faithful Abraham :” without having “ expiated their own sins, by a violent death in the street.”

“ Being washed, and sanctified, and justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the Spirit of our God”—when we die, we REST from our labours and our works do follow us” (they do not take us there ;) “ being justified freely by grace.”¹ But which doctrine, “ alas ! my brother,” you, though calling yourself a master of Israel,”—“ a school-master to bring men’s souls to Jesus Christ, are obliged to renounce ; teaching, that your “ Roman faith” sets it forth as “ taught by devils,”—as direct Lutheranism ;—because “ unsealing those things which the seven Vatican thunders, from her seven hills, had sealed up—he (Luther) now wrote them.” Therefore, while teaching such “ moral Theology,” and such a word of God as is that of your “ Bordeaux New Testament,” &c., the present Archbishop being so taught of “ the old prophet,” of Gaeta ; may well boast, that “ just as Rome-Babylon the great” is the head, so is Paris the HEART of the ROMAN FAITH.”²

But, Rev. Sir, what “ opponent” could have uttered a more bitter sarcasm than is this ?

P. of Mary. As “ a dear brother in Jesus Christ,” I entreat you, only to hear “ the Church.”³

¹ Mine adversary has indeed written an Epistle of “ Roman Faith.”

² We know well, what were the effusions of this “ ROMAN HEART” in 1572, 1685, &c. And having dethroned GOD in 1793, how natural is it that in 1849, they should undertake to *enthron*e an Anti-Christ in His place !

³ No, you shall hear “ THE TRUTH ” instead. “ In a hole in a wall was found secreted a box, in which a poor Carthusian brother [“in Jesus Christ,” of mine,]

O. C. Well ; seeking for fruit at Gaeta, but finding only “those very naughty Roman figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad”—We ask again for “the Church ;” hoping at last, to find those “splinters of light,” which should emanate from “the Church of the living God.” Whereas, alas, what in its place do we find, for that “light that is sown for the righteous,” but a poor DOTING CREATURE—“bare footed, and with a halter round his neck”¹—and so surrounded by “a cloud of false witnesses” that “in blackness and darkness” so obscure the throne of God from his view ; that in calling upon a sin-offering creature as “ITS mediator ;” upon the Blessed Virgin² as “the ONE SOLE Advocate in Heaven : IT forgets that God in his³ mercy, has gathered her into the grave in peace ; that her eyes should not see all the evil which has been brought upon this place.”

had deposited the following prayer : O most merciful God [not immaculate Virgin, see note 2, p. 29,] I know that I can only be saved, and satisfy thy righteousness by the merit, the innocent suffering, and death of thy well beloved Son. Holy Jesus, my salvation is in thy hands. Thou canst not withdraw the hands of thy love from me, for they have created and redeemed me. Thou hast inscribed my name with a pen of iron, in rich mercy, and so that nothing can efface it, on thy side, thy hands, and thy feet.” Apoc. Sketches, 212. Rev. Sir, “this poor, ignorant” brother in Jesus Christ, having so “separated himself” from the “ROMAN FAITH,” do you wonder at his “secreting” his letter ? What, his “Salvation” in the hands of Jesus Christ ! (See note 2, p. 29. The prayer of Greg. xvi.) His was the more sure word of prophecy ; whereunto ye would do well to take heed, as unto “a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and daystar arise in your hearts.” Whereas St. Amb. calls Rome “Caput superstitionis.” J. 421.

¹ “They that did feed delicately are desolate there in the streets : they that were brought up to scarlet, embrace dunghills !” but “they repent not of their deeds ! !” Yet let us have hope. For as the late pious Bishop Horne wrote, “Even Pigs can look up to heaven,—when thrown on their backs.”

² “But in order that our most merciful God may the more readily incline his ear to our prayers, and may grant that which we implore, let us ever have recourse to the intercession [1 Tim. ii. 1, 5] of the most holy Mother of God, the immaculate Virgin Mary, our sweetest Mother, OUR MEDIATRIX,” &c. Enc. Letter Pius ix. 23. Brit. Ref. Soc. See note 6, p. 18.

³ Gl. of Mary, Dub. 145. See note 4, p. 13, Venn’s Cor. ; and note 4, p. 22.

Then, regarding in pity, and commiseration, this poor creature ; who is himself “deceived, as he deceives” others: listening to his discourse ; we hear him say, “Papa non est HOMO!”¹ for he really fancies himself “the Lord’s Christ ;”² “The Lion of Judah ;”³ “The good Shepherd ;”⁴ “The Lord GOD upon earth ;”⁵ “The visible Jehovah ;”⁶—saying, “To me all power in Heaven and on Earth is given.” “So that it is necessary to salvation for every human creature to be subject to the Pope” of “Gaeta.”⁸ Thus proving, by his calling upon a strange god, instead of “giving glory to the God of Heaven ;” that “where Christ’s Vicar is, Christ Himself is most certain not to be found.”

Again we go to “the CONSULTER, whom the Lord our God hath driven out”—and “hear a deeper speech than can be perceived ; a stammering tongue that cannot be understood :” for it tells us that “*whosoever rejects Tobias,*⁹ as not canonical, is ACCURSED.” Does the “Consulter, or Wizard” make an exception “to such abominations,” in respect to S. Jerome, and the Fathers ? Because, Rev. Sir, in your letter, in direct contradiction to this “consulter, or charmer ;” you contend, that an apostate “curses not her father,” although he, as a heretic, in this instance is “in unanimous consent with the Fathers ;” as you have sworn to be ;¹⁰ affirming with them, that “Tobias IS NOT CANONICAL.” And if so, Rev. Sir ; then, necessarily must it be, that her “lamp is not put out in obscure darkness” (although a really WISE MAN says that it is ;²) on the same principle, that the “adulteress taken in the VERY ACT,” may swear to her husband, that the

¹ Edg. Var. 129.

⁵ Edg. Var. 130.

⁷ Edg. Var. 131.

⁹ Vulgate. Venice, 1706. De Canon. et Hier. Prol. Gateatus.

¹⁰ Prop. III.

^{2 3 4} “Mariolatry,” 87, &c.

⁶ Hung. Conf. Vind. 8.

⁸ Notes of Ch. 103.

¹¹ Prov. xx. 20.

marriage¹ bed is undefiled. "BECAUSE having confessed her GUILT,² she is absolved!" Or, "by a mental reservation, she may mean, that she has not been guilty of Idolatry—which is adultery:" that she has not been out a whoring with the Archbishops to ADORE the celebrated dolls of Lucca and Pisa, &c.³ Such lasciviousness as is this, may be "most convenient food" for the bachelor "shepherds to give; but will not God punish the goats?"

A poor simple, ignorant priest, preached—"Go unto SAINT Joseph:" probably not knowing that "Joseph, the husband of Mary;" and "Joseph, the husband⁴ of Asenath;" were different persons. Just as his Holiness, Gregory II., while denouncing Ozias for breaking to pieces the⁵ brazen serpent; commended King David's miraculous anachronistic skill, "in placing the Ark, and the same brazen serpent in the temple of Solomon." How like is this in you, Rev. Sir, as being, no doubt, equally well instructed in Bible history: to send me; saying, "Go to the Church."⁶

Well; again, and again I go. I go to you for an explanation of Col. i. 24, and you tell me that "Christ's merits are infinite:" and that "with *good*⁷ works, &c. applying to

¹ "Awf. Disc." p. 68, 69. What is the DRIFT of the bachelor "Saint"-Tartuffe's MEANING HERE?

² Without any "hyperbolical expression," with Jewel, we may here say, that this is "unreverently misused," may we not, Rev. Sir?

³ "The holy Face at Lucca." "The Lady of the Organ at Pisa," &c. "Lucca," see Idol. Worsh. Virgin Mary, Brit. Ref. Soc., 16. See note 2, p. 36. "Is it written?" "How readest thou?"

⁴ It is pretended that the Blessed Virgin was but the companion of Joseph. However, "It is written," that Joseph "knew her NOT TILL she had brought forth her first born son." That SHOULD settle the subject.

⁵ Edg. Var. 425, &c. See note 4, p. 14. "Search the Scriptures."

⁶ "When they shall say, Seek unto wizards that peep and mutter, &c. To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to THIS word, it is because they have no light in them."

⁷ "Christ's merits being INFINITE," the merits of the finite creature are required to help out those that are INFINITE." Is that what you mean, Rev. Sir?

ourselves the merits of our Saviour, we shall be saved." Now this will do for "Roman faith:"—but no further. Cardinal Bellarmine¹ tells us that five celebrated doctors of your Church, "understand 1 Cor. iii. 11—15 all differently:" (each dashing his head against the other, as Charles Albert dashed his head against Radetzki's!) and so it remained, till in the last days, a more resolute, hardened blasphemer rose in the person of the Archbishop of Bordeaux; who, translating it, says it is—"He himself² shall be saved, yet in all cases as by the fire of purgatory." Now, Rev. Sir, if otherwise:—that is, "not wilily," you can prove purgatory; why coin false money, that no Jew will take? Well, wishing still to take your advice; I once more, in going to "the Church," listen to "the sound again from the seven mountains:"—and what is it that is heard, but a confused stammering "echo," John of Tuam *leagued with "the Devil, contending against"*³ "Dr. Miley, a priest of Mary's, for the carcass of Dan O'Connell! Are these "the two trumpets, made from one whole piece of silver," that give this uncertain sound, as though it were "one barbarian speaking in an unknown tongue to another barbarian?"

How is this, Rev. Sir, has "the Good Shepherd's" voice "charmed so unwisely," that after eighteen centuries, Dr. Miley is to be left all alone, to contend with the Devil, AND John of Tuam; and that too, for "such a bone?"⁴

P. of Mary. Not "being faithless, but believing" what-

¹ Finch's Sketch. Oh! that this book were reprinted, and in a cheap form.

² Bordeaux New Test.

³ See, "Is Mr. O'Connell in PURGATORY?" 20,000th. What, does John of Tuam want to keep back part of the price" "till he hears the CHINK in the box?" Tetzel and Co.

⁴ What, when Peter himself said to others, "How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord?" What, "like that which is never satisfied," does John of Tuam "ever cry, Give! Give! to redeem thy brother, &c.: God will accept a ransom for him"—or at least the Pope will,—or I, at any ever "the Church" teaches; am I to dispute her authority? Read the Vulgate—there you will see it distinctly asserted, that while you are "accursed, if you reject the Apocrypha:" S. Jerome, in "denying that it is CANONICAL,"¹ is prayed to as "A MOST BLESSED SAINT," now in Heaven. Consequently, why not therefore believe, with Dr. Miley, that poor Dan's body "IS IN HEAVEN," in "an ACCOMMODATING SENSE:" while, to be strictly "orthodox," in the "Roman faith," we uphold, in a no less "ACCOMMODATING" CATHOLIC "SENSE," for "the craft's sake," of *Peter's pence;*² that John of Tuam, so lately from Babylon, Rome, or Gaeta: all the same which:—must know what is right; he having heard "the voice of the Pope, which is the voice of God?"

O. C. What, then, just in fact, as the "omnipresence" of your hero-gods, or saints is proved, where it says, that "saints, as also angels, by a certain wonderful swiftness, which is natural to THEM, are in some manner every where" at once. Which must be, as Dr. Murray, the Popish Archbishop of Dublin, should explain, must be—that they are in two places at once, *because they have wings.*³ rate, will,—so he "crieth ever, Give! Give!" Whereas Dr. Miley says, "BUT HE LIED." Is it thus that these two Irishmen are at unity together?

¹ Note 9, p. 41.

² Pius IX. in 1846 offered indulgences to Ireland, which, if accepted, were to exempt them from "the whole of the temporal punishments due to their sins." Were these indulgences so disdained, as not to be accepted? Or, is it, that those poor suffering creatures are enjoying that "REST" from their pains, which will be their portion in Purgatory? See Coventry Standard, July 23rd, 1847. "I speak as to wise men, judge ye what I say." Note 1, p. 3, Earl of Arundel and Surrey, &c.

³ For, what may he not achieve, who can show that the Word of God is directly at variance with itself! In the Bridg. of CHRISTIAN DOCT. p. 119, we read, "Is it lawful to honour the Angels or Saints? Yes. How prove you that?" From Rev. xix. 10; "I fell down to worship before the feet of the Angel which shewed me these things."—Here a full stop. Lect. for the Times, 329. If then, Christ be THE TRUTH, to make lies our refuge, to teach IDOLATRY, and to hide ourselves in falsehoods such as are these lies in blasphemy, must be to make "a covenant with death, and with Hell an agreement."

And now to conclude, this our "communing and reasoning together:"—for we will not say our controversy:—as each, alike, hates controversy:—and in this "Dialogue" nothing has been brought forward, that admits of being CONTROVERTED.

Therefore, now to conclude, before we part; pray tell me, Rev. Sir: whether the report be true, viz. That the Wise-men, and the New-men, are at variance as to certain "profane and old wives' fables?" Not, whether the cloven foot at once should be amputated. Oh no! No! No! Not at all; but whether it should not be hidden just for the present; till the bud of Popery, (so promising at home, especially in the West of England) from the dark lanternism of Tractarianism; expands into more decided JESUITISM. And for the last time, Rev. Sir, be pleased to read what follows. The story is as indisputably true as it is edifying:—or, certainly, by such WISE-MEN, it would not have been authenticated, AS IT HAS BEEN. But in having been "diligently examined, as to the miracles handed down to posterity;" here, at least, no one "can be scandalized by the hyperbolical expressions" of these the holy Father's "writings."

P. of Mary reads for the last time. "The Devil coming to Saint¹ Dominic, as a sparrow, the Saint plucked him bare. And, coming again as a monkey; the Saint made his Hellishness hold a candle, till his fingers were burnt to the bone," &c.²

¹ Acta Ampliora S. Dom. Confessoris. Finch's Sketch. 418. When "Satan" himself comes, "with all his power, and signs, and lying wonders," will he be able to out do these "the great W.'s," &c.?

² Another equally edifying picture is to be seen in "Christ's un-holy home," the Vatican, of a Saint "preaching the Gospel to every creature," where he hopes, "in persuading, to prevail" with the fishes to become, not "only almost, but altogether" such teachers of "MORAL THEOLOGY," as was SAINT Liguori, &c. Query. Had they not better remain as they are?

O. C. Most edifying truly! “to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.” And having now, Rev. Sir, done what we could to “edify, exhort, and comfort” you:—having, we trust, “plucked you bare:”—having “placed in your hands a candle” to light up your darkness, which we expect “will burn your fingers to the bone”—we leave you, with a nail we have driven in, in a sure place: and may it be clenched:—so that thereupon, thoughts varied, and edifying, may suspend and linger usefully!

Adieu, at least for the present—but

“As with gunnes we kill the crowe,

“For spoyling our releefe,

“The Deuill so must we overthrowe,

“With gunshote of BELEEFE.”

Select Poetry, p. 37.

Being altogether, but in “an unaccommodating Roman sense,”

“Your dear brother in Jesus Christ,”

AN ORTHODOX CATHOLIC.¹

Pisa.

The Spring of 1849.

¹ “It is impossible for a zealous and enlightened Christian to live in the midst of a mass of error, and SUPERSTITION, and IGNORANCE, without sometimes having his spirit stirred within him, and without feeling tempted to shew his zeal for THE TRUTH in a bold and UNSPARING manner, regardless of consequences and results.” Charge of the Bishop of Gibraltar, 1844, p. 37.

ERRATA.

Page 26—Line 10—turn to page 23—line 19.

Line 20—For "There" read "Three,"

Note 9—For "Magnistimus" read "Negustintus,"

— 7. 20—For "Comes" read "Come,"

23—For "Stdy" read "Slay,"

— 8. 12—For "1040" read "1504,"

— 9. Note 1—For "Quenit" read "Quenel's,"

— 12. Note 1—For "Fillinsins" read "Filliustus,"

— 13. 18—For "When" read "Them,"

— 15. Note 1—For "Within" read "Written,"

Note 6—See Dr. Chris Wordsworth's letters, to
M. Gondon, on Hung: Confessions.

— 17. Note 1—For "Butler" read "Butler,"

— 23. Note 1, Line 2—For "Gris" read "Epis,"

— 23. 14—For "Brook" read "Tiber,"—

— 15—For "Stay" read "Slay,"

— 25. 11—Before "acknowledge," place "too,"—

— 26. 3—"Let us not confound the Creature and the Creator both together, lest it be said of us; They have honoured the Creature more than the Creator," St. Chyrs. Jewel iii. 481.

— 27. Last Line—But Rev. Sir,—as saith St. Aug. to another heretic—"Is this to lay matter to matter—and reason to reason, by the Authority of the Scriptures," Jewel iii. 217.

Page 29—Line 11—For "Prayers" read "Prayer"

— 30—Last Line—To "Matured," add—and "Revealed" in 1584—See Page 8—Line 12.

— 31. 25—For "Roman" read "Royal,"

— 36. 17—For "Roman" read "Royal"

— 37. 6—To the word "Infidel," apply what St.
Chyrs. saith—viz "They say i.e."—Some Heretics—as those of Rome—"whoso stayeth himself only by Faith is accused—St. Paul proveth—contrawise—That whoso stayeth himself by only Faith—he is blessed," Jewel
iii. 244.

6—For "Purgatory," it would be as well to read "Fai-Capon-Tory,"

— 40. 7—"A Doting!" Christian—when in safety he had passed by the cave's mouth—where this poor Doting Creature sat a Brimming, rejoiced that he had not taken WISEMAN'S Counsels,—so now let us in-pity pray for him, while—still—poor soul—a Doting
—he continues to imagine, That all those who are "Determine not to know anything save, J. L. and Him Crucified,—forsooth—are Socialists Communists
Heretics, and the like! see Kelly's Pil: Prog. p. 24; and Letters Enc. 1846.

Page 41—Note 9—For Gateatus, read Galeatus.

45 — 14—As a note to Tractarianism—add—Just as the natural beauties of the Tadpole are developed, that the unclean spirit may proceed from its mouth, (Rev. 16, 13,) when perfected in to the Frog; so Tractarianism, or Puseyism; first Tadpoling into simple Popery—soon Develops itself further on into the full blown flower of Jesuitism.

TEIGNMOUTH :

Printed by EDWARD AND GEORGE HENRY CROYDON, Gazette Office, Regent Place.

